NOTES

Bobba, as he was known by his grandchildren, was an avid baseball fan. He attended the opening game in 1902 and the closing game in 1953 of the St. Louis Browns. There is a picture of him in the September 28, 1953 edition of the St Louis Post-Dispatch at the last game the Browns played in St. Louis.

Birth certificates were not mandated in Nebraska before 1910. However, his 1917 draft registration card says he was born 11 June 1889 in Omaha, Nebraska.

His marriage record says he was born June 11, 1889 and that he was baptized in Omaha, Nebraska. It also says that he was living at 4718 Ashland Court, that his parents were Michael J Murphy and Elis Maher of 4052a St Louis, St Paul, Kansas. (The correct address for his parents was 4052a St Louis Ave, St Louis, Missouri. That address appears in the obit for their son, Michael C Murphy.)

He had a U.S. passport in 1955. According to the New York passenger list, the passport number was 599104. His wife was also shown on that passport. The passport application probably includes information about his birth place.

He is buried in Section 018, Lot 0337 in Calvary Cemetery in St. Louis, MO.

Lived at 4718 Ashland Court in north St Louis from 1913 until about 1927.
